

August College Newsletter

Upcoming College Visits @ Brookstone:

The September Newsletter will be the first to include upcoming College Visits.
Students & Parents: Take advantage of these next 3 weeks before school starts to go out and visit some of the Colleges or Universities you are interested in!

BIG REMINDER: College campuses often times have a different feel during the summer time or might now have that WOW factor. Be sure to remind your kids of that and if they do enjoy the visit; encourage, plan or discuss another visit during the school year when all the students are there.

Upcoming SAT Dates:	Brookstone's CEEB Code:	Upcoming ACT Dates:

Seniors!

The Common App is now available online! We encourage you to begin filling out the main pages of the application before school starts. It will make life less stressful and one less thing to complete once school is back in session! We will be happy to look over and review what you have already completed. Once school starts you can get to work on the supplements for each school you are applying to... unless you want to be productive and start early.

Don't forget to check the supplements and essay requirements and begin working on rough drafts!

Everyone!

IMPORTANT

Both the SAT and ACT have changed some registration procedures (or security measures). The biggest change being that both will require students to upload a CURRENT, RECOGNIZABLE photograph of themselves when registering.

Please visit the following links to be aware of the changes:

Colleges That Change Lives

(or CTCL) is holding an Atlanta Event for Students (and parents) on Monday, August 13 at 7:00 pm at the JW Marriot Atlanta Buckhead. 40 of the 41 institutions of the program will be in attendance.

We encourage students and families to attend. It is a great event and will be a tremendous experience for any student that doesn't know what kind of college/university they are looking for or any student that wants to look outside the box. We encourage everyone to check out the website to better acclimate themselves with the program and the institutions.
