SENIORS & JUNIORS & PARENTS:

Colleges are now hosting Preview Days (also known as visit days, discover days, etc.) for the fall semester. We strongly encourage you and your student to check the websites of schools they are interested and attend these events. They are great events for both the student and parents to see and experience the school and what it has to offer. Register soon, they fill up quick! If you are unsure what to look for, call or email us and we will be happy to help check if and when schools are hosting these events.
