Junior Parents:

Our annual Lovett Day College Trip will be Monday, September 15th.

Information about the colleges in attendance was passed out to all juniors TODAY.

Students need to plan to be at Brookstone by 6:15 AM. Dress up Day attire is required. You should have received a letter in the mail with information last week. The cost is $22.00/student.

Senior Parents "Tip of the Week": Please make sure Mrs. Berry, Mr. Terrell or yourself looks over your child's application before they get submitted for any errors or mistakes. You can never have too many sets of eyes double checking information!	JUNIOR & SENIOR PARENTS: Preview Days and Open Houses are typically hosted in the fall semester by a number of colleges and universities. We strongly recommend you and your child visit one of these events if possible. Visit the schools website or contact their admissions office to see if a school your child is interested is hosting one of these events.

All Students & Parents:

The Birmingham NACAC is coming up on Sunday, September 14th from 1:00 – 4:00 PM.

There will be over 100 colleges and universities in attendance. (See List)

This is a great event to gain exposure and experience into the world of college options and just a chance to meet and greet with admissions representatives from around the nation.
